

Churches Set Union Services

Good Friday will be observed by the Gardena Valley Protestant Churches which cooperate in the Gardena Valley Ministerial Assn. in the First Methodist Church, 812 W. 165th Pl., and Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd.

Duplicate programs have been planned from 12 noon to 2 p.m. in each of the churches. "Personalities of the Passion" is the theme for the service and ministers from the various churches will speak on Peter, Pilate, Judas, Simon of Cyrene, the Penitent Thief, and the Centurion.

Services Set During Week

The Ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be observed in a special Maundy Thursday evening meeting at Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., with the pastor, Rev. H. Earl Kuester, officiating.

On Good Friday, from 12 noon until 2 p.m. there will be a special service on the theme: "Personalities of the Passion."

Rev. Alvin Huss, pastor of the South Los Angeles Church of God, will speak on Peter; Rev. Earl Isbell of Alondra Park Methodist will speak on Judas; Rev. Clifford Tierney of South Bay Church of God will speak on Simon of Cyrene; Rev. Kenneth Dunkelberger of Atherton Baptist on the Penitent Thief; Rev. H. Earl Kuester of Calvary Baptist on the Centurion, and Mrs. Juanita Anderson of Calvary Baptist Church on Mary the mother of Jesus.

Special music will be brought by John Stevens, Alondra Park Methodist, and Mrs. Kay Bareford of Calvary Baptist Church.

Moose Lodge Plans Carlift on Easter

The Torrance Moose lodge, for the fifth consecutive year, will cooperate in the nation-wide "Operation Easter Carlift" by placing several automobiles and drivers at the disposal of persons who desire transportation to church Sunday, according to Joseph Piatt, civic affairs chairman.

"In every community where there is a Moose lodge, throughout the United States, Canada and Alaska," said Piatt, "free transportation to the church of their choice will be offered to persons who, because of illness, disability or similar causes, would otherwise be unable to attend church."

Last year an estimated 5000 automobiles, driven by Moose members, assisted more than 10,000 persons in attending church.

Piatt stated that all a person need do to obtain this service is to call the lodge hall or Fairfax 8-3347, 8-4456, or 8-6746. A clearly marked "carlift" automobile will then call at that person's home to take them to the church of their choice. After the services, the same car will return them to their home.

REV. ANGER TO DISCUSS 'NEW LIFE'

Rev. Ray Anger of San Pedro, pastor of the Religious Science Group will speak on the topic: "The Easter Story—Your New Life Today," on Easter evening at 7:30 p.m.

This meeting will be held in the YWCA Club House at the corner of Plaza Del Amo and Carson St.

There will be special Easter music and the hall will be appropriately decorated in Easter flowers.

On Good Friday between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m. there will be a special devotional service held at the home of Mrs. George Spears, 3909 W. 184th St. This meeting is open to all members of the group and their friends.

The Dynamic Living Class of the Religious Science Group will hold its study hour at the home of Mrs. John S. Taylor, 5650 Lewis St., North Long Beach today.

The meeting will be in charge of the president of the class, Mrs. Betty Keller.

This was the meeting that was to have been held at the Taylor home on last Thursday, but owing to inclement weather the date had to be postponed.

The men's study class of the group met last night.

These meetings are being planned semi-monthly and will be held in the evenings at the homes of members.

Plans Rites

Easter services at the newly organized North Side Baptist Church, which is now meeting in McMaster Park Recreation Building, will be at 10:30 a.m. Sunday.

Pastor Stuart Smith will speak on the subject, "If Christ Did Not Arise—What Then?"

In evening services at 7 p.m., Rev. Harold Nickel, extension missionary, will bring a message on "Organizing a Baptist Church."

Cantata Set

The adult choir of the Lomita Missionary Church will present an Easter cantata on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. The cantata is entitled "Life Eternal."

The choir is in charge of Ronald Ferguson, with Mrs. Doris Rose as pianist and Mrs. Carolyn Ferguson as organist. The public is invited.

The pastor's sermon on Sunday morning at 11 will be entitled "The Message of the Empty Tomb."
